Preferred means of communication:

Why are you interested in serving on the Disability Inclusion Fund Grantmaking Committee?

What relevant experience do you have to bring to the committee?

How do each of the guiding values of the fund matter to you?

- Participation
- Intersectionality
- Radical inclusion
- Leadership of those most impacted
- Cross-movement solidarity

Availability: Can you confirm your willingness and availability to actively participate during the timeline outlined and note any major periods of unavailability between July & October 2020?

Optional: Do you identify as having a disability?

Optional: This fund will prioritize support to organizations led by and for people with disabilities who are people of color, women and non-binary/gender queer folks, and LGBTQ. Do you identify with any of these groups?

Our timeline: After the nomination period closes, the Disability Inclusion Fund staff will review applications. We will contact shortlisted candidates for a phone or voice interview. We expect to announce the selected participants in July, and our first meeting will be held late July.

We are seeking advocates from a diverse range of disabilities, experiences, perspectives, identities, and geographies.

If you have any questions about this application or need further information, please contact us at: DIF@borealisphilanthropy.org or by phone at (510) 255-9249.
